

SOUTHERN WILDERNESS & GOURMET ISLANDS BY PRIVATE PLANE

There is no better way to explore our southern islands than by taking to the skies in a private plane. Savour a long weekend of gourmet produce, while leaving time to explore the rainforests, rivers and rich pastures of Flinders Island, north-west Tasmania and King Island.

A JOURNEY OVERVIEW

Melbourne - Flinders Island - Strahan
 - King Island - Melbourne

4 Days by Private Plane
 Departing 7 November 2026

Day 1 Melbourne, Flinders Island, Strahan

Our private plane is bound for the Furneaux archipelago off Tasmania's north-east coast. Alighting on Flinders Island, the largest of the group, we visit the island's noteworthy lookouts, including Trousers Point and Walkers Lookout. After a welcome lunch of fresh, local produce, we take to the skies again for the short hop to Burnie. From here, a scenic drive brings us to the west-coast town of Strahan. Our hilltop hotel overlooks its charming harbour surrounds. Pre-dinner drinks are served here, before we savour a sumptuous seafood buffet dinner at View 42°, also conveniently located within our accommodation.

Day 2 Strahan, Gordon River

Today we cruise an exquisite stretch of the Franklin-Gordon Rivers National Park aboard Spirit of the Wild. As we take in the splendour from the vessel's Premier Upper Deck, our personal guide shares their knowledge and passion for the world-famous region while we enjoy a lunch of local delicacies, accompanied by Tasmanian wines and beers. Back in Strahan, we take our seats in the Richard Davey Amphitheatre, where history is brought to life in the highly-acclaimed play The Ship That Never Was. Afterwards, dine at Risby Cove restaurant, a short walk from our hotel.

Day 3 Strahan, King Island

From nearby Regatta Point Station, we board a heritage locomotive on a journey through cool temperate rainforest. The 'Teepookana & the King' rail service also takes us across the Iron Bridge, which spans the King River. Following our arrival at Lower Landing, the train makes its return trip to Strahan. We further enjoy the serene wilderness while taking the road back to Burnie. Our plane then flies us from Burnie to King Island, where we check into our respective accommodation at either King Island Hotel or Boomerang by the Sea. We then raise our glasses during a Farewell Dinner that heroes the produce of King Island at the renowned restaurant, Wild Harvest.

Day 4 King Island, Melbourne

After breakfast we tour Currie township, then make the gastronomic pilgrimage to the King Island Dairy for a cheese tasting at the altar of Australian cheese. Afterwards, we set off for Cape Wickham on the island's craggy west coast to view Australia's tallest lighthouse. Lunch is served at Cape Wickham before our early afternoon flight back to Melbourne.
